Manor Real Estate Announces New President

St. Louis, MO, April 1, 2016 – Manor Real Estate is pleased to announce the naming of its new President, Ben Cherry, CCIM, effective April 1st, 2016.

Ben succeeds his father, Don Cherry, as President of the full-service real estate firm. “Ben’s limitless passion for the real estate industry and vast skillset in the field has allowed him to excel and he is the ideal individual to take Manor Real Estate to the next level,” says Don Cherry.

Ben joined Manor Real Estate in July of 2008 after gaining experience at two other national commercial real estate firms. “Manor Real Estate has expanded significantly over the past decade. My goal is to ensure Manor’s continued growth and presence in the St. Louis and surrounding markets for generations to come.”

Manor Real Estate was founded by Don Cherry in 1971. Manor Real Estate specializes in buying and renovating single-family homes, acquisition and management of multi-family and commercial properties under Manor’s portfolio as well as brokerage of residential and commercial properties.

To contact Ben Cherry, he can be reached by phone at (314) 647-6611 or via email, Ben@ManorRealEstate.com.
